

VOYAGER 2...AND ITS PAST EVENTS...We do not know anyone else being able to make such an offering of back issues of Voyager 2 covers. And this may be our final offering of some of these as most are several years old and down "to the bottom of our supply." These have been offered before at the time of issue of each but many of you have joined with us since some of them have been offered. Using the description of the covers on the enclosed Voyager 2 bulletin, you will be able to compare the list with covers you have and determine which ones you may still need. After making this offer to those of you that have notification envelopes on file with us, we will then offer what we have left to other space cover collectors. We wanted to give each of you first chance at them and if you do need any, the time is now. If you need most of these and wish to split up the payment to fit your collecting budget...just let us know and we will be glad to send them to you on that basis.
